Requests for academic bankruptcy are considered by the Admissions and Scholastic Affairs Committee prior to the start of each semester. The deadline for the Committee to receive application materials is the first day of late registration. Applications received after that day will not be considered until the following semester.

Students should complete this request and meet with the appropriate academic advisor before submitting this form to the attention of Ms. Sabrina Williams, Associate Director, UAH Enrollment Services, UC 124, Huntsville, AL 35899.
