

UAHuntsville

The Intensive English Program at UAHuntsville focuses on improvement in the four component skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing. Additional work in interactive academic and professional discourse insures progress in both accuracy and fluency. Because the program prepares students for academic study, students must be at least 17 years old and should have completed the equivalent of U.S. high school (secondary).

General Instructions for IEP Applicants

1. Application Form

Complete and sign the application form. Submit the completed application and the one-time, non-refundable $40 application fee in U.S. funds to:

University of Alabama in Huntsville
301 Sparkman Dr., UC 116
Huntsville, AL 35899

Do not send cash. Use a cashier's check, money order or credit card (if applying online).

2. Official, translated transcripts

The student's school or college must mail an official, certified copy of all transcripts or academic records, including certificates and diplomas to UAH. All documents must be translated directly into English by a qualified translator.

NOTE: Students who intend to matriculate in a degree program should also submit an official credential evaluation from an approved service (World Education Services, Josef Silny or Lisano International). Student may complete the credentialing process during the first semester in the IEP. Students will not be eligible to begin a degree program at UAH until appropriate credential evaluation is completed.

3. Language Proficiency Scores

Students should have at least a low intermediate level of proficiency in English. Proficiency can be demonstrated through TOEFL or IELTS scores or through completion of the UAH proficiency test. For more information, contact the Director of IEP to discuss a proficiency assessment (iep@uah.edu).

4. Affidavit of Financial Support

The student or the student's sponsor must submit an original, signed Affidavit of Financial Support with supporting financial evidence. Affidavit form is available on the undergraduate international admissions website.

5. I-20, I-551, I-151, I-94

New students, entering the IEP from outside the U.S., will be issued an I-20 for language training. Transfer students, transferring to the UAH IEP from another U.S. institution, must have their I-20 record transferred in SEVIS to UAH and must provide their SEVIS I-20 identification number on the admission application. U.S. permanent residents must provide a copy of both sides of the I-551 or I-151 (green card).

All other applicants with non-F-1 visas must include a copy of both sides of the I-94 card or the I-797 notice of action.
