CRIME ALERT
Indecent Exposure – Parking Turnout Area
Lakeside Drive In Front of the Shelby Center
Incident occurred on: February 11, 2016

In compliance with the provisions of the federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, the University of Alabama in Huntsville Police Department is giving notice of an incident of Indecent Exposure which occurred on campus around 10:40 AM.

A student reported she was waiting alone in her roommate’s parked truck, when a man approached from the front, passenger’s side. He spoke to the woman and asked if he could borrow her cell phone to call for help. He explained he had a flat tire. After a couple of attempts to contact someone, he handed the phone back and walked back to his parked car.

Within seconds, he backed his car and positioned it parallel to the driver’s side of the truck. The man exited his car and walked to the driver’s window. He again asked to use the phone and the student relinquished it. At this moment, he pulled down his sweatpants and exposed himself to the woman. She voiced her displeasure and told him to leave immediately. The man complied. There was a moment when she thought he would steal her phone, but he threw it out of his car window as he drove away. He was last seen exiting the campus via Knowledge Drive onto Sparkman Drive.

The suspect has been visually identified by the victim and is considered a “Person of Interest”. His photo is attached. He’s about 6’0” tall, 23-25 years old, medium complexion, medium build, 160-180 lbs. His hair appeared disheveled. He is unshaven. UAH Police believe he is driving this gray, late model, 4-door sedan. No make, model, or license plate number is available. Visit the UAH Police Web Page at Police.uah.edu for larger photos.
