CRIME ALERT
Burglary 2nd Degree – Roberts Hall
February 9 -10, 2016

In compliance with the provisions of the federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, the University of Alabama in Huntsville Police Department is giving notice of multiple faculty office burglaries in Roberts Hall. The crimes are believed to have occurred last night; Feb 9 – 10th.

It was reported on February 10, that someone entered the offices of three faculty members in Roberts Hall and stole “teaching text books”. No forced entry was used to enter these offices. Currently, the UAH Police Department have no suspects identified. Therefore we advise faculty and staff of the following security precautions:

1. Lock your office when you are not present
2. Secure valuables in a lockable drawer, cabinet or take them with you when you leave.
3. Report any unfamiliar person in your work area to the Police.

The UAH Police can be reached in an emergency by calling 256-824-6911 and 256-824-6596 for any non-emergency report.
