The meeting was called to order by Keisha Askew at 11:00 a.m.

Minutes of the last meeting:

A motion was made by Tami Lang to approve the minutes from the last meeting, January 18, 2006. The motion was seconded by Crystal Lee.

Old Business:

Keisha discussed the results of the campus-wide healthcare survey. Out of 1,000 survey's distributed, 471 responded. Results indicate that more questions were answered yes than no.

Anyone wanting a copy of the results of the survey should contact Ann Lee.

Jared Dinehart distributed Information Updates (a brief overview of issues impacting faculty and staff of UAH) 2005-2006 for the Governmental Relations Committee.

No other committees reporting.

New Business:

The QEP Report is now complete. A summary of the report will be distributed campus wide. Dr. Fix will meet again with the staff senate at our March meeting which has been changed to March 1, 2006 in UC – Room 125.

Keisha gave an update on the Administrative Council Meeting. She also reminded the staff senators that SACS will be on campus March 13 – 15, 2006.

Ray Pinner reported that the budget process is going well and that the University should have a very good budget year.

Cathi Curtis gave an update on the Grad Finale and asked that we encourage attendance.

Paulette Bell reported that she met with the HR committee along with UAH Nursing staff regarding the Sick Leave Bank. Discussion included suggestions for improvement. At present, we do have enough hours.

Ray Pinner reported that UAH Faculty and Staff will be receiving an additional (2) days sick leave beginning October 1, 2006.

Sue Garrison discussed several issues and concerns with our present healthcare and drug coverage and co-pays.

Keisha reminded everyone about the Just Move It Campaign which will begin February 20, and end on April 17, 2006. Registration deadline is February 17, 2006.

Meeting adjourned at 11:30 a.m.
