Behind Every Great Student...

At UAH, we know that students are more likely to be successful when they have a strong support system. Parents/guests will have an opportunity to hear from the Dean of Students about the importance of supporting their student.

10:30-1:15 pm
CGU Theater/Follow your OL

Student & Parent/Guest Sessions

- ▶ Getting the Grade is Half the Equation: At UAH, doing well in the classroom is only half of what it takes to become successful after graduation. This session focuses on how UAH can help students gain professional experience in the form of internships, co-ops, and field training.
- ▶ Tools for Success: This interactive session is the first step in learning how to navigate myUAH, which helps students register for classes, keep track of their personal information, and access information essential to their academic success at UAH.
- ▶ It Happens...Discussing Situations that May Arise in College: Throughout a student's time at UAH, both personal and academic challenges may arise. This collaborative and engaging session helps students and parents/guests analyze these situations to achieve the best possible outcome.

1:15-2:15 pm
Charger Café

Lunch

Students and parents/guests will enjoy lunch in the Charger Café located in the Conference Training Center.

1:45-2:15 pm
CTC Exhibit Hall

Meet the College of Engineering

Students planning to major in an academic program in the College of Engineering and their parents/guests are encouraged to enjoy lunch while meeting faculty and advisors.

2:30-2:45 pm
CGU Theater

Success Starts Here

The UAH Administration strives to see all students thrive while on campus. During this session, students and parents/guests will hear what goes into making a student successful at UAH.

2:45-3:30 pm
CGU Theater

Life Outside the Classroom

Getting involved on campus is a great way to meet friends and build leadership skills while taking a break from studying. This session will review ways to become an active member of the campus community through student-run organizations, athletics, Week of Welcome, and sororities and fraternities.

3:30-4:15 pm
CGU Theater

Orientation is Almost Over...Now What?

With Orientation winding down, this session will cover what to expect for Move-In Day, student bill payment, the role of the Charger Card, and other important information to ensure students are ready to start the semester.

4:30-5:00 pm
CGU 2nd floor/Bookstore

Meet & Greet Social

Parents/guests have the opportunity to enjoy refreshments in the UAH Bookstore and mingle with others from their demographic area.

5:00 pm
CGU 1st floor

Check-Out & Take Care of Business

Now "Charger-ready" with schedules in hand, students should take care of last-minute items by utilizing this resource fair. This is the perfect opportunity to ensure all questions have been answered before checking out of Orientation. Representatives from the following will be in attendance:

- ▶ Bookstore
- ▶ Bursar
- ▶ Dining Services
- ▶ Disability Support Services
- ▶ Financial Aid
- ▶ Housing & Greek Life
- ▶ Parent & Family Programming
- ▶ Research
- ▶ Student Health Services/Immunizations
- ▶ UAH Police Department/Parking Permits
- ▶ Military & Veterans Programs

5:30-7:00 pm
