

Dates and Estimated Costs

Dates

Dates vary by year; typically students can take a four-week course in May, June, or July.

Estimated Costs

$1400 payment due February 15.*

Payment includes:

- Instructional fees and materials at IIK
- Housing with guest family
- Health insurance in Germany
- Public transportation pass

$1100 estimated airfare

$800 estimated for meals

*This is an estimate. Firm amount will be announced in early January.

Estimate based on €20 per day. Students will be able to eat meals in University Mensa.

Hundredfold Stipend:

One stipend to cover instructional and housing expenses is available.

Application due December 1. Contact globalstudies@uah.edu for more information.

Contact

To find out more details, including course dates, exact costs for the coming year, payment deadlines, and information about course registration, please contact:

Dr. David Johnson
Director, Global Studies Program

Phone: 256-824-6288

Email: globalstudies@uah.edu

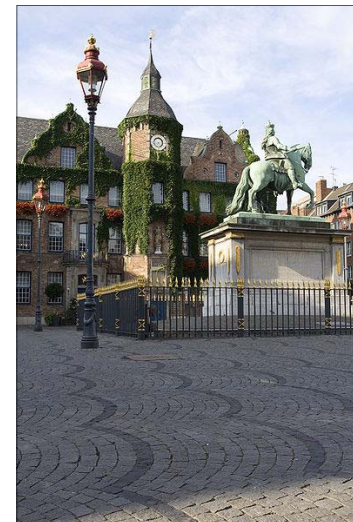

Web: globalstudies.uah.edu

Office: Morton Hall 253

UAHuntsville Global Studies Program

Intensive German in Düsseldorf, Germany

UAHuntsville
THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA IN HUNTSVILLE

UAHuntsville
THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA IN HUNTSVILLE

Instruction

Four weeks of intensive German instruction at the Institute for International Communication (IIC) in Düsseldorf, Germany.

Credit Options (each 3 credits):

- FL 201G Intermediate German
- FL 499S Advanced German
- Or credit equivalent equal to course level completed in Germany

Accommodations

Lodging with host family.
Laundry services with host family
Access to kitchen in host family home.
Access to university Mensa (cafeteria) for lunch.

Königsallee in downtown Düsseldorf

Düsseldorf

Rhein Tower

Fast Facts

- Capital of German state of North Rhine-Westphalia.
- Located on the Rhine River.
- Commercial center.
- Many museums and other cultural attractions (including extensive art scene).

Frank Gehry buildings in Düsseldorf

Additional Attractions

Students can choose to travel to other nearby destinations on weekends such as Cologne or extend their trip in order to visit other destinations such as cities in Holland, Belgium, France, or anywhere else they choose to go. Düsseldorf is ideally situated for exploring Europe!

Cologne

Paris

Amsterdam