What can University Housing Provide?

- In-Hall tutoring from the Student Success Center
- In-Hall Academic Advising
- Designated small and large group study space
- Computer labs
- Easy access to classes and campus resources
- In-Hall leadership from professional Resident Director (RD) with MA degree
- Resident Advisor (RA) to resident ratio of 1 to 30
- Themed communities and traditional housing available

Central Campus Residence Hall (CCRH)
7 floors  416 beds  Opened in 1991
4 private bedrooms – 2 full baths / suite
Data and cable TV in all bedrooms

FFH Theme Communities:
- Honors Community: Provide an environment that is tailored to meet the needs of students in the Honors program.
- Academic Success Community: Successfully aid first year students in the transition from high school to college academics and support students in their academic pursuits
- Leadership Community: Promote leadership education and opportunities through programmatic participation, mentoring, and personal involvement.
- Women’s Interest Community: Promote an environment supportive of women’s professional and personal interests.

To learn more about University Housing and apply on-line visit our website at: http://housing.uah.edu/

For additional information, please contact the housing office:
- Telephone (256) 824-6108
- Email: housing@uah.edu
- Fax (256) 825-6739
- Mail: University Housing
  601 John Wright Drive
  Huntsville, AL 35899

Frnak Franz Residence Hall (FFH)
4 floors  248 beds  Opened in 2006
4 private bedroom – 2 full baths /suite
Data and Cable TV in all bedrooms

Engineering Community: Provide Engineering majors a collaborative, positive environment in which to learn about themselves and the Engineering profession.

Discovery Community: Assists students in all aspects of self-discovery during their first year of college.

Involvement Community: Assist students during their first year of college to adjust to college life and to help them become aware of opportunities for leadership and involvement.