What can University Housing Provide?

- In-Hall tutoring from the Student Success Center
- In-Hall Academic Advising
- Designated small and large group study space
- Computer labs
- Easy access to classes and campus resources
- In-Hall leadership from professional Resident Director (RD) with MA degree
- Resident Advisor (RA) to resident ratio of 1 to 30
- Themed communities and traditional housing available

CV Theme Communities:

- Engineering Community: Provide Engineering majors a collaborative, positive environment in which to learn about themselves and the Engineering profession.

- Leadership Community: Enhance leadership education and opportunities through programmatic participation, mentoring, and personal involvement.

- Honors Community: Provide an environment that is tailored to meet the needs of students in the Honors program.

To learn more about University Housing and apply on-line visit our website at:

http://housing.uah.edu/

For additional information, please contact the housing office:

- Telephone (256) 824-6108
- Email: housing @uah.edu
- Fax (256) 825-6739
- Mail: University Housing
  601 John Wright Drive
  Huntsville, AL 35899

Advantages of Living On Campus:

Studies have shown students who live on campus their 1st and 2nd years are more likely to get involved in academic and social activities are more likely to graduate than those who do not.

Resident students are also more satisfied with their university experience. Students who live on campus have easy access to classes, faculty, campus resources, the fitness center and campus activities.