BETA GAMMA SIGMA

Beta Gamma Sigma was founded as a national organization in 1913. Membership in Beta Gamma Sigma is the highest national recognition a student can receive in an undergraduate or master's program in business or management accredited by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business. Its counterparts in arts and science and engineering are Phi Beta Kappa and Tau Beta Pi, respectively. To be eligible for membership, a student must rank in the upper seven percent of the junior class, upper ten percent of the senior class, or upper twenty percent of the graduating master's class. Members are elected to membership. The mission of Beta Gamma Sigma is to encourage and honor high academic achievement and personal excellence in the study and practice of business.
