

Florida 2006

That's right, Gainesville, Florida!!

The UAH Student Chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) is traveling to Gainesville, FL in March 2006 for the 2006 Southeast Regional Competition.

The UAH ASCE club holds 13 regional and 5 national championships in the concrete canoe competition (more than any other school!!).

We also compete in ALL the competitions at regionals:
balsa wood bridge, steel bridge, technical paper, and many more.

No experience is needed, and you don't even have to be a Civil Engineer to join. All UAH students are welcome!

If you want to build your resume while enjoying the outdoors, hands-on building, barbecues, and teamwork you should join!!

First chapter meeting is:
Time: September 19th at 7 PM.
Location: Tech Hall Room S105

Free Pizza and Refreshments

Contact: annetteswilson@yahoo.com or marsham@email.uah.edu

For current events and more information visit:

http://www.uah.edu/student_life/organizations/ASCE/