Chargers for life: UAH unveils new vision for alumni relations

UAH is rolling out a bold new vision for alumni engagement, unveiling expanded programs, refreshed leadership and stronger connections for more than 52,000 Chargers worldwide. With Alumni Relations now aligned under Strategic Communications, the university is elevating how it informs, celebrates and involves its graduates.

“Our goal is to strengthen engagement and ensure every Charger feels part of the UAH story — no matter where they are,” says Kelly Myers, director of Alumni Relations and Special Events.

UAH advances major campus projects: cybersecurity center and track and field complex

Two transformative projects are underway at UAH that will elevate academics and athletics alike. The renovation of the Bevill Center will create the Center for Cybersecurity Research, Education & Advanced Training, while the new Track and Field Complex gives Chargers their first on-campus track and NCAA-compliant facilities.

“These projects represent significant investments in UAH’s future and reaffirm our commitment to advancing both academic excellence and the student experience,” said UAH Chief Administrative Officer Dr. Kristy Lee. “The new Center for Cybersecurity will strengthen UAH’s position as a national leader in cyber research, while the Track and Field Complex will enrich campus life and elevate our athletics program.”

Give Every Month Society: A gift that keeps on giving.

Join the Blue GEMS and choose your impact

Your generosity at UAH doesn't follow a single path — you choose where it shines. Whether your heart is with a college, a scholarship, a beloved program or a mission that shaped your story, your gift sends light exactly where you want it to go.

By joining Blue GEMS (Give Every Month Society), each monthly contribution becomes a steady glow of support that creates a lasting impact throughout the year. Like a gem that catches the light again and again, your recurring gift continues to reflect hope, opportunity and possibility across our campus.

Choose your impact. Shine EVERY month.
