

HINTS

- All Outdoor Rec scavenger hunt points are located outside
- Start and finish in any order and whenever you'd like. (You may want to use uah.edu to help you.)
- Take a picture of the area at all 14 points. When you have all 14 pictures, stop by the Outdoor Rec counter at the UFC and show them to the trip leader anytime between 2pm and 7pm on Mondays or 2pm – 7pm on Fridays to receive your shirt!

1. This point is the first major building constructed on the UAH campus (1960) and has recently had a major face-lift!

8. You may spot the President of UAH coming in and out of this building because this is where his office is.

2. Buffet food is the best food. This point provides many extracurricular activities and events for students and community members.

9. Come visit the bridge at this housing residence that connects this point to its newest addition.

3. Learn all about art and music here and see some cool art sculptures.

10. Come play volleyball here at this apartment style housing residence.

4. Ball is life.

11. Hey Buster, take a walk to meet at this UAH sign. But, be careful not to get hit by a home run.

5. Become a well-read fish at this point! Here offers a wide range of learning and reference services, instruction sessions, group study rooms, A/V areas, and printing.

12. Come "grow" with this group near the W33 lot and learn about a healthy, rewarding, and sustainable new hobby!

6. The heart of the UAH community. Come here to study, buy books, or even watch a movie!

13. Say hello to the ducks and geese while trying to make par at this point.

7. Get ready to exercise! This is where the Outdoor Rec program is housed!

14. This point houses a state-of-the-art auditorium that hosts a plethora of events.
