

Faculty Finance and Resources Committee

Charge:

1. The Senate Faculty Finance and Resources Committee shall review, assess, and make recommendations concerning:
2. The mission, goals, role, and scope of the university.
3. The objectives and plans of the major budget units.
4. The information base and planning procedures utilized in budget preparation.
5. The annual budget request and annual operating budget.
6. Campus planning and allocations of space and funding.
7. Working in conjunction with the Senate Research Committee, the allocation of university resources (monies, equipment, space) in support of faculty research.

This committee shall also be responsible for recommending modifications or changes in all matters under its consideration. The Committee also shall be responsible for collecting and disseminating information pertaining to the acquisition, availability, and apportionment of university resources among faculty. The Senate will be represented on the Budget and Planning Advisory Council or its successors by the chair of the Senate Faculty Finance and Resources Committee, one other member elected by this committee, and the Senate president-elect.

Membership:

Membership shall consist of at least one senator from each unit listed in the Faculty Senate Bylaws, II.C.1. and one representative from the Employee Benefits Committee. The Vice President for Finance and Administration will serve as a resource to this Committee.
