

FINANCIAL PLANNING FOR RETIREMENT WEEK

Your Financial Future Matters

Social Security Administration

Tuesday, March 26 | 11:30 a.m. | Shelby Center Room 301

Facilitator: Kelli Booth

An important part of retirement are the benefits received from social security for both income and Medicare benefits. A social security representative will provide information on the program, benefits, and services. Register online.

TIAA: Paying Yourself: Income Options in Retirement

Wednesday, March 27 | 11:30 p.m. | Shelby Center Room 301

Facilitator: Jared Gilbert

You've made a lot of sacrifices in order to put away enough money to retire. When it's finally time, do you know how to get the money back? There are lots of considerations, rules and tax implications that make these decisions very important and more complex. TIAA's workshop leader will help simplify retirement income.

NOTE: Session is available to all current TIAA participants.

Register online.

Teachers' Retirement System and PEEHIP

Thursday, March 28 | 10:00 a.m. | Conference Training Center

Facilitator: Jacob Cook and Erica Thomas

This seminar will provide an overview of the Teachers' Retirement System including retirement calculations, income options, and service credit. A PEEHIP representative will be available to discuss health insurance options in retirement.

Register online.
