Understanding Forgiveness

Presented by: Eva Churchill

Most of us know that internalizing anger, resentment and grudges creates a negative impact on wellbeing. While many of us want to release negative feelings towards others, we struggle with how to do it. Forgiveness doesn't mean giving someone a pass. Forgiveness means releasing yourself. In this webinar, we'll discuss how holding onto anger hurts us, how anger and resentment manifest in our minds and bodies, and how to take concrete steps towards lasting forgiveness. We'll offer skills and tools for a more peaceful mindset.

We All Matter: Diversity in the Workplace

Presented by: Eva Churchill

In today's workplace, employers have a large pool of talent to select from when hiring. But this variety brings unique challenges of its own when it comes to creating an equal opportunity workplace. This includes hiring people from all walks of life: different races, religions, languages, lifestyles, and many other unique characteristics. For your organization to succeed, everyone needs to be on the same page and working towards the same goal. This training is designed to assist in creating cultural awareness and inclusion for all employees.

The Sandwich Generation: Multi-Generational Caregiving

Presented by: Shanti Douglas

Are you taking care of your children and your parents? Many middle-aged people find themselves caring for both ends of the age spectrum - helping both their children and their parents navigate finances, social lives and changes in capacity for independence. This kind of caretaking can cause burnout and exhaustion. This webinar will review the phenomenon of the sandwich generation and how we can better manage the needs of our changing families. We'll discuss ways to have productive conversations with aging parents about their needs, ways to troubleshoot burn out as a caregiver and how to keep your own family running smoothly.
