President's Message

Jerri McLain,
OLLI President

Nothing focuses the mind like setting a goal.

OLLI at UAH has set many goals this year, small ones and big ones. We're going about checking them off as they are realized.

A big goal was to reach 800 members. Check that one off.

Another was to increase our OLLI at UAH Scholarship beyond $50,000. Check that one off.

Our 20th Anniversary called for a year of recognition. Maybe plan a Speakers' Series with four featured speakers. Check that one off.

OLLI at UAH needs support from the community to enhance and continue to provide a comprehensive, satisfying, broadly-reaching, curriculum-based program. Why not ask the A&F Committee to begin a Sponsorship/Donor initiative? Check that one off.

To strengthen OLLI at UAH committees, why not enlist the help of a vice chairman for each committee? Check that one off.

To meet the needs of all of our OLLI at UAH members, eager to learn, how about broadening our talented instructor base, offering new classes and increasing extra-curricular and social activities. Check that one off.

And the list goes on... Are we where we want to be? No. Does a lot remain to be done? Yes.

Can everyone help? The answer to this one is surely yes. In fact, it's a requisite.

We're a volunteer/PCS staff partnership. It takes all of us. This list of achievements is punctuated with names of those who have stepped forward to lead. We are indeed blessed with talent and energy.

Thank you for all that you do!

Curriculum

Mike Doyle,
Chair

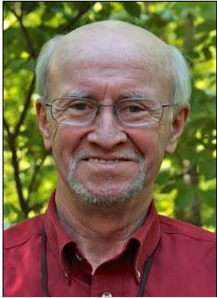

I think that winter is finally over. Spring is alternating between showers and sun; not seeming to know what to do when. The Spring term is in full bloom (pun intended).

We have twenty-six new courses. They cover the gamut from antique cars to the Battle of the Bulge. I am afraid that I have revealed myself as a male who never quite grew up. However for the ladies we have a stupendous flower arranging course, garden tours, and other sumptuous delights.

Where did all of this come from? YOU, my dear colleagues, are the culprits. Without you we would be sadly lacking in courses and instructors. The program is doing well but we need to keep pushing for new courses and new instructors. That is not to say that previous courses will not be well-attended. On the contrary some of our previous courses and instructors just seem to get better and better.

We need you to tell us what you want. We want you to tell us about instructors including yourselves. And having taught my first OLLI course I can tell you that it is not a hard thing to do. If you enjoy a subject think about teaching it. OLLI will supply teaching materials and handouts. All you have to do is say, "I want to teach!" We will put you to work.

SAVE THE DATE !! Thursday, June 5, 2014

Join OLLI friends on a day-trip to Florence, Alabama, to visit the Rosenbaum House—the only Frank Lloyd Wright structure in the Southeast open to the public. The Rosenbaum House was designed by Wright in 1939 in his “Usonian” style for Stanley and Mildred Rosenbaum and occupied by that family until 1999. It was purchased by the city of Florence and meticulously preserved as a museum—an architectural gem. The Friday Focus class featured the Rosenbaum House on May 9.

Carpools will leave from the front of Wilson Hall at 9:15 am on June 5 heading to Florence. Our tour begins at 11 a.m. and will last approximately one hour. Admission is $5 per person for our guided tour, payable at the door. Afterwards, you may choose where to have lunch from a number of delightful restaurants not far from the house.

Following lunch, you and your carpool may choose to visit the W.C. Handy Birthplace and Museum in Florence ($2 admission fee), the Helen Keller Birthplace “Ivy Green” in Tuscumbia ($5 admission fee), or other area attractions. Options for lunch and area visits will be sent to all participants in advance.

Please contact Sheila Scruggs at sheilascruggs2@gmail.com to sign up and note if you will take your car and provide a ride for others.

NEW LANGUAGE OPPORTUNITY

Most articles on maintaining mental fitness for seniors will include learning a new language as a great way to keep those brain cells stimulated. OLLI currently offers classes in German, French, Russian and Spanish. We are pleased to announce the formation of a MIG to study an entirely different language form to stimulate those brain cells.

Turkish is called an agglutinative language which means that information is built up by adding suffixes to a common root form rather than complicated declension and conjugation. While different than most of the language structures that we are familiar with, it is consistent and logical. It also has what is called "vowel harmony."

The Turkish Language Study Group will meet in the Sewing Room at the Madison County Senior Center on Fridays from 10 to 11:30 a.m. starting May 2, and will meet through the summer. Textbooks will be available. If interested call Bill Holman at 256-882-9109 or email at hlmnbill@knology.net. (Or just show up at the Senior Center on any Friday morning.)

Blinking Red Light

In front of the new Charger Union on Holmes Avenue is a blinking red light. Drivers need to understand that when the red light is BLINKING, they must stop. But if the pedestrian walkway is clear and there are no pedestrians approaching, drivers are supposed to then drive through the intersection. DO NOT sit at the blinking red light waiting for it to stop blinking. Each and every car must come to a full stop at the blinking red light. After stopping, if the walkway is clear and no one is approaching the walkway, the driver should go on through the intersection. Only at a SOLID (not blinking) red light is one supposed to stay stopped.

Facebook and Social Media

Facebook has more than 800 million active users, and over 50 percent of them log in to the site every day. Chances are your children, grandchildren, and friends—both long-lost and brand new—are among these users. Facebook provides a new way to stay in contact with people, organizations and causes. In this course, we will guide you through the Facebook vocabulary like your “profile,” the “Wall,” and “updating your status.” Learn how to navigate the settings that control what others can see about you, and what appears on your Facebook wall. We’ll also cover examples of other popular social media sites and applications including Google+, YouTube, and Twitter, and the pros and cons of each.

June 18 & 19 | 9:00 am – Noon | WH-202 | C62M1403 | $60

Windows 8®

Windows 8 is much different than earlier versions of the Windows operating system, starting with the appearance of the “start” screen. Windows 8 offers integration with mobile devices, cloud storage, and security enhancements. You’ll be introduced to new words such as “charms,” (Search, Share, Start, Devices, and Settings—which are quick ways to get to actions you do often), and learn about all the essential features, including the new file and folder behaviors, and useful applications such as Calendar, Photos, and Music. Learn how to adjust system settings like default programs and volume, and how to work with external devices. You’ll also learn about advanced procedures to keep your system more secure, and how to do basic troubleshooting.

Tablets 101

Here’s your introduction to the world of tablets: iPads, Androids, Windows, and eReaders! You’ll learn that a tablet is simply a mobile computer with a display, circuitry, and battery in a single unit. We’ll demonstrate tablet features including cameras, microphones, and touchscreens, and show you how our fingers or stylus gestures replace computer mice and keyboards. We’ll also demonstrate how tablets control basic features such as speaker volume, power, and communications ports. You’ll see on-screen, pop-up virtual keyboards, and be amazed by the power and capabilities of these small tablets.

July 16 & 17 | 9:00 am – Noon | WH-202 | C62M1402 | $60

Create! Greeting Cards, Flyers, & Newsletters

Have you ever wanted to make your own flyers, greeting cards, thank you notes, Christmas cards or business cards? Have you ever wanted to create a newsletter or other document that included a variety of words, pictures, graphics and/or charts? In addition, you'll learn to crop, straighten, remove red eye, tweak color and exposure, and adjust color cast and white balance—and even add special effects. # Classic Cars - New Spring Course

Nell Owen, a vintage car enthusiast and officer in several automobile clubs, arranged for the presentation of this fantastic class.

The class got to hear the story of the Keller automobile built in Huntsville in the late 1940's, and after class see one of the three known remaining Keller Super Chief "woodies" in the Wilson Hall parking lot.

Our class lecturer, Sam Barnett (right below) worked most of one year restoring one of three known Keller Wagons. They believe that a few others might exist. The car's owner is Sam's mother (middle below). These cars are authentic handmade products of Huntsville, Alabama.

Photos by Bill McAllister

The restored yellow 1948 Keller Super Chief was built at the rented Building 4471 on the Arsenal property. George Keller, a former executive of the Studebaker Corporation, became involved with a California new-start auto designer who wanted to build a small affordable car for the average family. Joining with Hubert Mitchell, a local furniture manufacturer, Keller and Mitchell produced a small number of station wagons featuring a wooden body behind the front engine compartment. Mitchell and Keller toured prototypes all over the country, and dealers signed on in all 48 states. But cost of production exceeded advanced sales promotion; few automobiles were sold before the inevitable closure of the company.

Floral Arranging Spring Course

Our Floral Arranging course has been a big hit this spring term. Class members are learning some basic techniques under the expert guidance of a different volunteer instructor each week. Flowers and supplies are provided and class members enjoy creating their own arrangements as the instructors consult.

Student Engineering Facility Tour on UAH Campus

On Thursday April 17th, the Special Events Committee sponsored a visit to the Student Engineering Facility in the Olin B. King Technology Hall at UAH. Fourteen OLLI members participated in this event. Mr. Stephen Collins, the prototype development specialist directed the tour.

This is a fully equipped machine shop and members moved about the area observing the students as they worked on their projects. In this class, the students learn to turn their engineering designs and ideas into real products.

Mr. Collins gave detailed information about the 3D printing process. While the shop 3D Stratasys printer was in operation, we were able to examine actual 3D products that were on display. One of the more interesting items was a model of a human femoral artery.

On March 19, 2014 as the fourth and final speaker in the OLLI 20th Anniversary lecture series, Terry Kay came to conduct an "Author's Workshop" and to present the anniversary lecture in the afternoon. The ending of his talk was a beautiful and memorable summation titled "While Reading."

WHILE READING

words by Terry Kay:

While reading, I have been—

- A cowboy (and an Indian) with Zane Grey
- A Confederate soldier with Joseph Pennell
- A pirate with Robert Louis Stevenson
- An orphan with Charles Dickens
- An eccentric with Flannery O'Connor
- A dust-bowl traveler with John Steinbeck

While reading, I have been—

- A whaler with Herman Melville
- A gold-dreamer with Erskine Caldwell
- A small-town barber with Wendell Berry
- A runaway with Mark Twain
- An old-time gospel god with James Weldon Johnson

While reading, I have been—

- A b-flat coronet player with William Price Fox
- A battler of windmills with Miguel de Cervantes
- An attendant in the House of Gentlemen with Kathy Hepinstall
- A basketball player with Pat Conroy
- A fire-fighter with Larry Brown
- A defense attorney with John Grisham

While reading, I have touched the ocean's darkest depths and walked on planets in solar systems beyond our seeing..

I have climbed mountains lost in clouds...

I have flown with Lindbergh and John Glenn, stood at Gettysburg with Lincoln and in Montgomery with Martin Luther King, Jr.

While reading, I was at Dachau on the day of liberation.

While reading, I have sat at the feet of Abraham and Moses and Jesus and Muhammad and Buddha, and all the other men of God, and also those who would kill God—the insane, the madmen, the bigoted, the fanatics.

While reading, I have been boy and man, girl and woman. I have been young and old.

I have died and have been re-born.

While reading, I have become people I cannot be, doing things I cannot do.
And I do not know of any other experience that could have given me such a life.

A Special thanks to the Office Volunteers

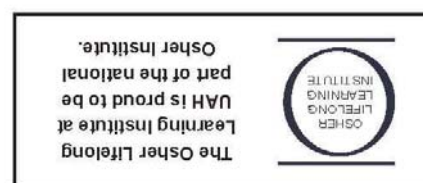

The best indicators of OLLI's health – the total membership and the number of members enrolled for classes – look great! The membership is now 812 as compared with 728 a year ago. There are 278 members enrolled for classes as compared with 228 for last spring.

OLLI's success depends on many people volunteering to do many different things. We, the office staffers, are a vital link in the chain. We can be proud to be a part of the recent growth. Thanks to each of you for your contribution.
