NOTES:

- The Cohort is based on the IPEDS definition for new freshmen. The definition is listed at the bottom of each page of the report. Basically it is all new first-time, full-time, degree-seeking freshman.
- Retention is computed based on enrollment in Fall terms. A cohort member is considered to have continued to a given year if he/she had not yet graduated and was enrolled on the 10th day of class in the Fall term of that year.
- A cohort member is considered to have graduated in a given year if they graduate prior to the Fall term of that year. For example if a member of the 2002 cohort graduated in Spring 2006, they would appear in the 'Continued to Year 4' column and the 'Graduated in 4 Years' column, but they would not appear in the 'Continued to 5 Years' or 'Continued to 6 Years' columns.
- Stop-outs are allowed. For example, if a member of the 2002 cohort did not enroll in Fall 2003, but did enroll in Fall 2004, he/she would not be included in the 'Continued to Year 2' numbers, but would be included in the 'Continued to Year 3' numbers.
- Students are sometimes removed from the cohort for various reasons (deceased, military service, etc.), so you may notice the cohort numbers fluctuate slightly between the yearly published retention report

The Cohort includes only first-time full time degree-seeking freshmen. The definition of a first-time freshman is a student who has no prior postsecondary experience (except as noted below) attending any institution for the first time at the undergraduate level. This includes students enrolled in academic or occupational programs. It also includes students enrolled in the fall term who attended college for the first time in the prior summer term, and students who entered with advanced standing (college credits earned before graduation from high school).
