SUBJECT: Promotion and Tenure Decisions Effective Academic Year 2022/2023

I am pleased to announce the tenure and promotion decisions, effective academic year 22/23. These decisions resulted from extensive reviews by faculty colleagues at the department, college, and university levels and, in appropriate cases, references by distinguished colleagues from other academic institutions. My decisions took into account those reviews and the recommendations of the chairs and deans. Interim President Karr concurred with the decisions.
