WELCOME BACK TO UAH!

We want your transition to UAH to be as smooth as possible. That's why we provide a variety of services devoted to your success. As a new Charger, we hope you'll take advantage of these campus services.

The Office of Career Services supports students by offering resume help, interview preparation, networking assistance, and career coaching. Students also have the opportunity to create a Charger Path account to publish their resume and search for co-ops, internships, and even jobs after graduation listed exclusively for UAH students and alumni. uah.edu/career-services

The Student Success Center (SSC) is a UAH student's one-stop-shop for academic support. Services include tutoring, writing assistance, peer mentoring, academic coaching, and help with time management skills, goal setting, and test preparation. uah.edu/ssc

The University Fitness Center (UFC) offers a host of amenities to students including a gymnasium, indoor pool, indoor track, cardio center, group fitness classes, and weight room. Membership to the UFC is at no additional cost for all full-time students. universityfitnesscenter.com

The Student Health Center (SHC) is designed to meet the basic health-care needs of UAH students. Services include, but are not limited to, physicals for pre-employment for nursing school, vaccinations, treatment of acute illness, health counseling, and preventative health exams. The fee for an office visit is $10. uah.edu/shc

The Counseling Center is staffed with mental health professionals trained to support students with academic, personal, and social development. As a UAH student, you are able to schedule an appointment to speak with a counselor who will listen to your concerns and determine the best path to suit your needs. The fee for an office visit is $15. uah.edu/counseling

The UAH Bookstore offers a variety of used, new, and electronic textbooks available for purchase or rent. They will also price match with other bookstores to ensure you are getting the best value. Finding your textbooks online is easy due to automatic registration integration that shows the required textbooks for your classes. For more information, visit the UAH Bookstore on the first floor of the Charger Union or call 256.824.6604. uah.edu/bookstore
