

The David Lee Wells Memorial Scholarship

The David Lee Wells Memorial Scholarship is awarded to a music major who demonstrates academic achievement and financial need, and has exhibited leadership potential in the field of music through participation in professional or community activities and personal accomplishments.

The David Lee Wells Memorial Scholarship was established in loving memory of an extraordinary young man who was born in Huntsville to Robert and Thelma Wells. His parents and two brothers endowed this scholarship in his memory. David demonstrated exceptional talent and love for music, and enriched the lives of many people.

This scholarship is renewable for up to three additional years. The student must maintain a full-time course load (12 credit hours) each semester. In addition, recipients must complete a total of 24 credit hours each academic year, have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher, and must submit a scholarship application by the priority deadline each year, providing continued evidence of leadership potential through participation in professional or community activities, to be eligible for renewal of this award.
