

The Ina B. Clark Global Study Scholarship

The Ina B. Clark Global Study Scholarship is awarded to a full-time undergraduate student majoring in foreign language or art history who has demonstrated financial need to engage in overseas study. The award may only be used for expenses incurred by engaging in a semester of study abroad.

The scholarship was established by Ms. Ina B. Clark. Ms. Clark began study for the Bachelor of Arts degree at UAH when she was sixty-nine years of age. During her college years at UAH she enriched the lives of fellow students by developing vibrant and supportive academic and personal friendships. At the age of seventy-seven she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in art history and a minor in art studio. Ms. Clark traveled throughout the world and enjoyed study of various cultures and languages.

This scholarship is a one-year award and is not renewable. The student must maintain a full-time course load (12 credit hours) and have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. Students should submit a scholarship application every year in order to update their files and possibly be eligible for other awards. This scholarship must be used only for expenses incurred by engaging in a semester of study abroad. The award is based on academic merit and demonstrated financial need.
