

The Kathryn L. Harris Women's Studies Scholarship

The Kathryn L. Harris Women's Studies Scholarship is awarded to a student who has declared a minor in Women's Studies. The award is based on academic merit, financial need, and community and/or school involvement.

The scholarship was established in 2000 to promote excellence in higher education through the inclusion of women's accomplishments and contributions.

The scholarship is renewable for up to three additional years. The student must maintain a full-time course load (12 credit hours) each semester. In addition, recipients must complete a total of 24 credit hours each academic year and have a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or higher to be eligible for renewal of this award.
