

The Lonnie McCormick Scholarship for Excellence in the Arts

The Lonnie McCormick Scholarship for Excellence in the Arts was established in 2015 to honor Dr. Lonnie McCormick. Dr. McCormick graduated from The University of Tennessee School of Medicine in 1961. He settled in Huntsville where he spent his entire career as a radiologist and where he continues in retirement to contribute to community endeavors, including the arts. Dr. McCormick has a passion for art with a particular interest in sculpture and painting. This scholarship is awarded to students for their junior or senior year who are either majoring in Art, Art History, or Design, or students in other majors who demonstrate recognized artistic interests and accomplishments.

This scholarship is renewable for up to one additional year. The student must maintain a full-time course load (12 credit hours) each semester. In addition, recipients must complete a total of 24 credit hours each academic year and have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher to be eligible for renewal.
