

The Marie Alexander Bone Memorial Scholarship

The Marie Alexander Bone Memorial Scholarship is awarded to an undergraduate student enrolled in the College of Business. The award is based on academic merit, citizenship and leadership.

The parents of Marie Alexander Bone established this scholarship in loving memory of their daughter who earned the distinction of being the first woman and youngest city president in the history of AmSouth Bank.

This scholarship is renewable for up to three additional years. The student must maintain a full-time course load (12 hours) each semester. In addition, recipients must complete a total of 24 credit hours each academic year and have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher to be eligible for renewal of this award.
