

The Allison McCants Jenkins Nursing Scholarship

The Allison McCants Jenkins Nursing Scholarship is awarded to a junior level nursing major. Recipient selection is based on academic merit and demonstrated financial need, with preference given to students who are residents of the State of Alabama, who contribute to the University and the community, and who will consider donating to the scholarship fund after graduation.

The scholarship was established by Andrew H. Jenkins in honor of his wife, Allison McCants Jenkins, to benefit students at the University of Alabama in Huntsville.

This scholarship is renewable for up to one additional year. The student must maintain a full-time course load (12 credit hours) each semester. In addition, recipients must complete a total of 24 credit hours each academic year and have a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or higher to be eligible for renewal. Students should submit a scholarship application every year in order to update their files and possibly be eligible for other awards.
