

The Boeing Presidential Scholarship

The Boeing Presidential Scholarship is awarded to an entering freshman who is a full-time Engineering or Science major and who will reside on campus. The recipient should be among the best and most promising of the elite students who enroll at UAH. The award is based on academic merit, citizenship, and leadership.

The Boeing Company is a leading aerospace company and a global market leader in satellites, commercial jetliners, military aircraft, missile defense, human space flight, and launch services. The Boeing Presidential Scholarship was established at the University of Alabama in Huntsville by the Boeing Company in 1994 to reward scholastic achievement.

This scholarship is renewable for up to three additional years. The student must maintain a full-time course load (12 credit hours) each semester. In addition, recipients must complete a total of 24 credit hours each academic year, have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher, and must submit a scholarship application by the priority deadline each year, providing continued evidence of leadership potential and participation in community and professional activities, to be eligible for renewal.
