

The Leroy Simms Scholarship

The Leroy Simms Scholarship is awarded to a first-time freshman of any major and is based on academic merit and demonstration of outstanding personal and leadership characteristics.

Established in 1981, the Leroy Simms Scholarship honors the memory of the publisher of The Huntsville Times who was a highly respected advocate and loyal supporter of UAH. Mr. Simms served the citizens of North Alabama with enthusiasm and devotion as an outstanding newspaper publisher. He gave generously of his time and provided financial support to help ensure the successful development of UAH during its early years.

This scholarship is renewable for up to three additional years. The student must maintain a full-time course load (12 credit hours) each semester. In addition, recipients must complete a total of 24 credit hours each academic year and have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher to be eligible for renewal. Students should submit a scholarship application every year in order to update their files and possibly be eligible for other awards.
