

The Patrick W. Richardson Memorial Scholarship

The Patrick W. Richardson Memorial Scholarship is given to an undergraduate student who is a resident of the State of Alabama. The award is based on academic merit and demonstrated financial need, with preference to applicants who demonstrate leadership potential and contributions to the University and community.

The scholarship was established by Mary M. Richardson and Schuyler H. Richardson in honor of the late Patrick W. Richardson, husband and father, respectively, to benefit students at the University of Alabama in Huntsville.

This scholarship is renewable for up to four additional years. The student must maintain a full-time course load (12 credit hours) each semester. In addition, recipients must complete a total of 24 credit hours each academic year and have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher to be eligible for renewal. Students should submit a scholarship application every year in order to update their files and possibly be eligible for other awards.
