

The Samuel Palmer Memorial Scholarship

The Samuel Palmer Memorial Scholarship is awarded to a full-time undergraduate student. The award is based on academic merit.

Having the distinction of being the first endowed scholarship at UAH, the Samuel Palmer Memorial Scholarship was established in 1968 from real estate that was given by bequest to UAH. Samuel Palmer was the father of Octavia May Palmer, who endowed this scholarship in his memory through a bequest of property that had been in the Palmer family for more than 100 years.

This scholarship is renewable for up to three additional years. The student must maintain a full-time course load (12 credit hours) each semester. In addition, recipients must complete a total of 24 credit hours each academic year and have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher to be eligible for renewal. Students should submit a scholarship application every year in order to update their files and possibly be eligible for other awards.
