

The Wells Fargo Scholarship

The Wells Fargo Scholarship is awarded to an undergraduate student in an under-represented demographic group who is a resident of the State of Alabama and demonstrates financial need. The award is based on academic merit, citizenship, and leadership potential.

The Wells Fargo Foundation, a North Carolina non-profit corporation, established this scholarship in 2006 to benefit students at the University of Alabama in Huntsville.

This scholarship is renewable for up to three additional years. The student must maintain a full-time course load (12 credit hours) each semester. In addition, recipients must complete a total of 24 credit hours each academic year and have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher to be eligible for renewal. Students should submit a scholarship application every year in order to update their files and possibly be eligible for other awards.
