

CALHOUN + NORTHEAST + MOTLOW STATE

DUAL NURSING DEGREE

The University of Alabama in Huntsville (UAH) collaborates with Calhoun Community College, Northeast Alabama Community College, and Motlow State Community College to provide a Dual Nursing Degree program.

Eligible students enroll concurrently at UAH and their respective host institution to pursue both their Associate Degree in Nursing (ADN) and Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN).

SCAN FOR A PROGRAM OVERVIEW AND ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

nursing@uah.edu
256.824.6742
uah.edu/nursing

THE NURSING DIFFERENCE

$86,070 yearly median salary
for Registered Nurses

– bls.gov

UAH College of Nursing:

Established in 1971

Almost 8,000 Alumni

Faculty are subject-matter
experts and researchers with clinical expertise in their fields

Opportunities for study-abroad experiences

Recent Employers include:

Huntsville Hospital
Crestwood Medical Center
Children's of Alabama
Emory Healthcare
Vanderbilt University
Medical Center
BioCryst Pharmaceuticals

UAH NURSING
STUDENTS HAVE A
100% NCLEX
PASS RATE*

*2023

Beyond Your BSN:

Master of Science in Nursing (MSN)

Doctor of Nursing
Practice (DNP)

Doctor of Nursing
Science (Ph.D.)

4 Concentrations:

Adult-Gerontology
Acute Nurse Care
Practitioner

Family Nurse Practitioner

Nursing
Administration

Nursing Education

COLLEGE OF NURSING