
COLLEGE OF NURSING
BSN NURSING PROGRAM APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS & INSTRUCTIONS

Admission to the College of Nursing will be considered after admission to UAH is granted. The nursing application packet must be complete when submitted. Enrollment into upper division nursing is limited and competitive.

1. Completed College of Nursing Application for Admission – includes:
 - a) Professional Statement: reason for interest in the profession and educational goals
 - b) Official transcripts or Unofficial copies of transcripts from all institutions attended (minimum 3.0 GPA on all required prerequisites and 2.75 GPA on required sciences)
 - c) HESI Admission Assessment (A2) report with a minimum cumulative score of 75%
 - d) Application Fee: a non-refundable application fee of $20 – check or money order only - submitted with the nursing application and made payable to UAH College of Nursing
2. Elsevier HESI Admission Assessment (A2) Exam: A minimum cumulative score of 75% is required.
 - This exam must be completed prior to applying and your printed score report must be included in the application packet. You may take the test multiple times if needed.
 - An 80% or higher is required on the HESI A2 for EPNP students.
3. Previous Nursing Program:
 - A “Letter of Good Standing” from the nursing program, signed by the Nursing Administrator of the program (must indicate current status and eligibility for continued enrollment and progression in the previous program).
 - If you failed out of a nursing program or failed any nursing class, you are not eligible to apply.
 - UAH College of Nursing does not accept transfer of nursing clinical courses.

All applications are subject to an evaluation rubric which takes into account the following: calculated nursing prerequisite GPA, all science grades, number of course repeats, and the Elsevier HESI Admission Assessment (A2) Exam cumulative score (minimum 75% required). Enrollment into the University (pre-nursing/lower division courses) as a nursing major does not guarantee admission to upper division nursing.

NOTE: Prior to attendance in nursing courses, admitted students will be required to meet all health requirements and pass drug screens and background checks.

The UAH College of Nursing reserves the right to select the best qualified applicants who are most likely to succeed in the study of nursing. Failure to comply with legal, ethical, moral, and legislative standards for licensure to practice as a registered nurse in the State of Alabama merits immediate dismissal from the nursing program.

Decision letters will be mailed out five weeks after the posted application deadlines.
