PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Head of Archives, Special Collections, and Digital Initiatives, University of Alabama in Huntsville

Librarian III October 2017-Present

Lecturer, June 2016-September 2017

Currently oversee the daily operations of the Special Collections and Archives department at a RI very high research activity public university. Duties include administering faculty, staff, graduate research assistants, student assistants, interns, and volunteers (Spring 2024 5.5 FTE). Major duties include collection development, outreach, arrangement and description of archival materials, providing effective reference service, grant writing and developing access to the collection. Supervised a complete renovation of the lower level of the Salmon Library, including the construction of a new Archives and Special Collections Reference Room, installation of 3500 linear feet of compact archival shelving and 1900 linear feet of compact book shelving, and creation of eleven cubicle work stations and three faculty offices. This makeover included the creation of a digital projects area in the archives, which is outfitted with state-of-the-art software and equipment for analog to digital conversion. Oversaw the formation of a Digital Initiatives Lab in 2022 to host faculty and student scholars to enhance digital scholarship collaborations. Led the UAH archives team in implementing three content management systems: ArchiveSpace, Omeka, and Digital Commons. Integrated Digital Initiatives into the unit workflow, and led the process to develop digital toolkits to support collaborations via the Digital Initiatives Lab. Over the past six years I have directed or participated in grant projects totaling over $85,000 in funding. Other duties include serving as the liaison to the UAH History Department, teaching history courses in archival studies in the UAH History Department, and teaching FYE and study abroad courses in the UAH Honors College.
