Mentoring

Honors Contract Spring 2023 in ENG 227: Intro to Creative Writing
The focus/topic of the Honors Contract is: the project is exploring the false neutrality of legal writing and the justice system for the project.
Specifically, they will be exploring through fiction and poetry writing the experience of criminal defendants in the legal system as well as how precedent and convoluted procedural rules can be used to deny people relief.

Honors Contract Fall 2021 in ENG 227: Intro to Creative Writing

The focus/topic of the Honors Contract is: to examine Poetry, Fiction, and Non-fiction in a greater depth. The Honors Contract was aimed to explore creative productivity, hyper focusing on the fiction unit as a fiction-genre writer to create an original product that is repeatedly edited, revised, and the recipient of feedback over the course of the semester.

Honors Contract Spring 2023 in ENG 128: Gender in the Humanities

The focus/topic of the Honors Contract is: the student is focusing on gender in our society, and the intersections of gender with other social aspects such as race, sexuality, and relationships. The project will also focus on the relationship between these topics and psychology, or how societal issues impact the mental well-being of marginalized groups affected.

Honors Contract Spring 2023 in ENG 128: Gender in the Humanities

The focus/topic of the Honors Contract is: The focus of my honors contract is using We Set the Dark on Fire by Tehlor Kay Mejia, to further analyze feminist themes being analyzed and recognized during class discussions.
