Professional and Administrative Experience

- The University of Alabama in Huntsville

Dean, College of Business (July 2016 – present)

The College of Business has approximately 30 tenured and tenure-track faculty, 5 non-tenure-track faculty, 30 part-time faculty, 17 staff members in three academic departments and three centers, and a budget of approximately $12 million. The college serves approximately 1,050 undergraduate students with majors in Accounting, Analytics, Economics, Finance, Information Systems, Management, and Marketing. Approximately 400 students are enrolled in the college's six master's degree programs. The college's MBA program and master's programs in Human Resource Management, Information Systems, and Supply Chain Management are offered in a fully online format, while programs in Business Analytics and Cybersecurity serve working professionals with a mix of online and evening on-campus classes.

Highlights of responsibilities and initiatives during tenure as dean include:

External Visibility and Development

- Promoted the college and university to current and prospective students, alumni, and the community by maintaining visibility at student recruitment events, visiting with alumni and community stakeholders on and off campus, participating in service organizations, serving on boards, and attending community events.
- Restarted a dormant Dean's External Advisory Board and started an Accounting Advisory Board and an Information Systems Advisory Board of distinguished alumni and community leaders. Actively engaged these boards in curriculum reviews, program improvement, and student support and career development.
- Introduced high school entrepreneurship programs to community members and collaborated with them in starting the first two programs in Alabama. Served as a founding member of both programs' boards.
- Helped establish the donor-supported UAH Last Mile Fund to assist student with needs in their last year to completing their degrees. Raised funds donors to create the largest college-based Last Mile Fund among UAH colleges.
- Established two new donor-funded faculty professorships.
- Oversaw the launch of an annual Space Commerce Workshop to promote and support an expansion of commercial space activity in the Huntsville business community.

Commitment to Diversity, Shared Governance, and Transparency

- Promoted transparency and shared governance in college matters by creating an ad hoc Faculty Advisory Committee and then formalizing it as a college standing committee as the Faculty Development Committee to recommend and review policies, practices, and programs related to faculty development and evaluation.
- Shared college and university information, kudos, and reminders through a weekly College of Business Update for faculty and staff.
- Promoted a culture of inclusiveness in faculty and student recruitment and college-hosted or college-sponsored events.

Strategic, Operational, and Fiscal Management

- Collaborated with faculty, staff, students, and external stakeholders to develop a new college strategic plan: Establishing New Frontiers in Business 2018 – 2025; updated in 2023 to Establishing New Frontiers in Business 2023-2030.
- Oversaw two successful AACSB Continuous Improvement Reviews (2018 and 2023) resulting in extensions of accreditation.
- Formalized for the first time the college's operating policies, including introducing new policies regarding student admissions, faculty qualifications, faculty workload, part-time faculty salaries, and promotion within the Clinical faculty track.
- Initiated and won faculty approval of codified expectations for quality and quantity of research for tenure and promotion.
- Developed and delivered a comprehensive college financial report to facilitate financial planning and provide transparency into college finances and operations to stakeholders.

- Enhanced the summer research grant program for faculty, creating summer research stipends and increasing the amount of summer funding for research and course innovation grants.
- Assured efficient and effective use of resources by staying under budget every year.
- Developed and won approval for fee revenue to increase faculty resources that support more flexibility and choice in courses in graduate programs.
- Co-Chaired the Academics working group for the UAH Strategic Plan in 2020-2022.
- Oversaw rejuvenation and update of the Business Administration Building, including construction of a Finance Lab, Collaborative Cybersecurity Lab, expanded advising offices, new and renovated student lounges, and a Career Closet.
- Chaired the Academic Working Group of the UAH Return-to-Campus Task Force during the COVID-19 pandemic. Developed plan for delivering and supporting on-campus, hybrid, and online instruction for AY2020-2021.
- Collaborated with the Provost, President, and VPFA to create a new summer school operating model to share summer tuition revenue among the university, provost, and colleges and increase compensation opportunities for faculty.

Development of Curriculum and Student Service Programming

- Developed and won unanimous faculty approval of to launch a fully online option for the MBA program, including expanding college resources to create faculty capacity to deliver the program.
- Oversaw a focus and realignment of seven graduate degree programs to sustain and grow their quality, efficiency, and enrollment.
- Streamlined undergraduate concentrations within majors and added and aligned minors within each major discipline.
- Created two new undergraduate majors in the BSBA degree: an Analytics major in response to market demand; a General Business major to provide a path to graduation for students who had earned credits across many business disciplines and levels but lacked a clear path to a degree in discipline-specific majors.
- Enhanced extra- and co-curricular opportunities for students' professional and career development, including adding a new position in the college for a Career and Internship Coordinator.
- Established a new experiential learning opportunity for students through the donor-supported Chan Investment Fund with an initial $250k under management.
- Chaired the UAH Deans Working Group on Retention and Persistence. Developed and delivered collaborative workshops across the university for faculty initiatives to improve student success. Recommended cohort-based advising structure at the university level to promote retention and increase graduation rates.
- Participated in Deans Working Group to recommend university structure to support expansion of online programs and courses in all colleges.

Interim Dean, College of Professional Studies (June 2021 – May 2023)

Appointed by the Provost as the interim dean following the retirement of the founding dean of the College of Professional Studies (CPS), which was comprised of two academic degree programs (BS in Engineering Technology; BA/BS in Professional Studies focused on adult learners), a testing center serving external stakeholders as well as stakeholders internal to the university, the UAH Osher Lifelong Learning Institute targeting retired persons and seniors, support and reporting for outreach programs, and non-credit professional development training and continuing education programs. Led the development of a plan in collaboration with the interim provost and dean colleagues to reorganize and distribute CPS units to other areas of the university to better realize the mission, vision, and strategic priorities of the university. The distribution aligned each CPS unit with a receiving unit in a way that preserved the CPS unit and its personnel, put each unit in the position to have enhanced support, and gave each unit the opportunity to expand the capability, capacity, or effectiveness of the receiving area. The reorganization plan was approved by the Board of Trustees in September of 2022 and successfully implemented in full by May of 2023, thereby dissolving the college.

- Southern Illinois University Carbondale

Interim Dean, College of Business (July 2014 – June 2016)

The College of Business has approximately 1,450 students, 29 tenured and tenure-track faculty, 10 non-tenure-track faculty, 20 full time staff members, and a budget of approximately $10 million.

Highlights of initiatives during tenure as interim dean include:

- Initiated the creation of a strategic plan for diversity and inclusion for the college.
- Created a working group structure within the external advisory board to engage members in projects to benefit students, including professional etiquette dinner event for 200+ students, alumni mentorship program, and annual young alumni award.
- Oversaw successful AACSB Continuous Improvement Review resulting in extension of accreditation.
- Developed a comprehensive college financial report to assist in financial planning and provide transparency in finance and operations to faculty, staff, and alumni.
- Increased the diversity of the faculty by assisting in the recruitment of two new female tenure track faculty members.

- INTECH Investment Management, LLC

INTECH is a global institutional investment manager implementing a mathematical investment strategy in U.S. and non-U.S. large cap equity portfolios based on Stochastic Portfolio Theory. As of December 31, 2008, INTECH managed approximately $42B on behalf of more than 400 clients, among which were some of the largest public, multi-employer, and corporate pension, foundation, and endowment plans in the world. INTECH was an independently operated subsidiary of the Janus Henderson Investors (formerly Janus Capital Group), with headquarters in West Palm Beach, Florida, a research facility in Princeton, New Jersey, and an international office in London.

Part-Time Consultant (August 2009 – 2012)

Resigned from INTECH in July 2009 to return to academia. At INTECH's request, served as a part-time consultant beginning immediately after leaving the firm. Conducted research and analysis of INTECH portfolios and advised executive management. Helped coordinate and deliver training about INTECH products and investment process for the investment, client service, and sales professionals.

Vice President and Senior Investment Officer (April 2007 – July 2009)

Promoted to executive head of the Florida Research Team and the Portfolio Management (trading) Team. The Portfolio Management Team was responsible for trades totaling approximately $100B per year. Reported directly to the President/Co-CEO and managed a team of eight members, including two finance PhD's and five investment professionals and portfolio analysts. The team's research and analysis substantially contributed to client retention during a period of INTECH's worst underperformance in a decade. Collaborated with five Princeton-based PhD mathematicians and physicists, including the Chief Investment Officer to develop products and analyze performance. Advised executive management on products, research, and the investment process. Coordinated and delivered training on INTECH products and investment process for the investment professional, client service, and sales personnel.

Senior Investment Officer (September 2006 – March 2007)

Responsible for research into portfolio performance and performance analysis. Contributed to materials and information provided to increase clients' understanding of the investment process and performance. Assisted the client service and investment professional teams in meeting with high-level investment professionals and research staffs of clients and consultants.
