

MASS SPECTROMETER

Manufacturer: Pfeiffer Vacuum

Type/Model: Thermostar GSD320

Analyzer: QMG-220

Mass Spectrometry is a technique that produces a singular spectrum of the masses of atoms of a sample material. This analysis is used to determine the isotropic signature of the sample. This equipment can be used with the TGA, the Ashing Furnace, or any other device to obtain the isotropic signature of the exhaust or atmosphere.

